

HOW PRODUCTIVE ARE YOUR PROJECT TEAMS?

A successful project team works collaboratively, is clear in role and responsibility and delivers. This one day workshop is designed to provide project and program teams with the team development process to quickly build a high performing project or program team. The workshop will introduce relevant team frameworks, cover team formation and development and provide practical and fun team building exercises to influence, motivate, coach, develop and cultivate effective relationships with team members.

Achieving Project Team Success

Workshop Outcomes

Strategies for developing a high performing project or program team.

Greater self-awareness as a team member.

Tips for building and maintaining trust.

Strategies for dealing with tensions in the team.

Tips for ensuring effective communication and collaboration across the team.

Handy hints for effective project team meetings.

A team plan to implement in the workplace.

Korrine Jones, Director and Principal Consultant for OD Consulting, specialises in optimising the performance of virtual, dispersed and remote teams.

For the past 12 years, Korrine has successfully run a training and consultancy business, providing leadership, management and team development and coaching to clients across a wide range of industries.

With a range of qualifications to complement her years of experience, Korrine holds a Master of Business Administration and a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment. She is also a Certified Professional of the Australian Human Resources Institute, a Certified Results Coach and NLP Practitioner and is accredited in DiSC and Team Management Systems.tative on the Global Board of the Change Management Institute.

www.odconsulting.com.au

Elissa Farrow from About Your Transition is a global thought leader in organisational and individual change. She is an experienced strategist and runs a successful consulting and training business with clients globally.

She is an experienced mediator, mentor and coach in the areas of project and change governance, portfolio, program and project management.

Elissa has delivered learning and consultancy services to clients in the tertiary education, cultural development, environment, construction, transport and logistics, social services, housing and the resources sectors. She has a strong solution focused philosophy that assists participants to see opportunities in times of change.

www.aboutyourtransition.com.au

Duration :
1 day

Your investment
$4,000 per seminar for up to 12 attendees

More information
1300 163 119

info@odconsulting.com.au
discover@aboutyourtransition.com.au